ACCORDING to the Chinese press, planes ordered from Germany for the proposed Nanking-Berlin Air Service will be brought to China in February, when a test flight will be made. One of the planes will be used for the Peking and Ulaanbaatar and Urga (Outer Mongolia). It is expected, says the Chinese press, that the inauguration of the Nanking-Berlin Air Service will take place in May, next year.

NANKING-BERLIN AIR SERVICE

Shipment of Planes Due in January

Nanking, Oct. 25.

A shipment of aeroplanes destined for the inauguration of the new Nanking-Berlin air mail and passenger service operated by the "Euro-Asia Aviation Corporation" will be dispatched here from Germany at the end of the month by the Hamburg-America Line. A report to this effect has been received at the Ministry of Communications from Mr. Shuang Tsing, Counsellor to the Ministry, who has been making the necessary arrangements at Berlin.

The Corporation has decided upon the operation of the Nanking-Peking section of the proposed air line soon after the arrival of the aeroplanes. As they are expected to be here by January, 1931, it is hoped to start a regular service early next spring. Steps are now being taken for the construction of landing fields along the Nanking-Peking route.—Kuo Min.
